THE RED CHAMBER SCRNE.

New York, August 3 -- The Dribuse says that in the course of Mrs. Tilton's examination Friday night, incidents of the impropriety of Mr. Beecher's behavior toward Mrs. Tilton, which Mr. Titton had alieged had taken place in his presence, were entered upon. The statement that Mr. Beecher gave Mrs. Fliton an improper caress by touching ner ankle when both were upon the floor looking at engravings, was denied by her in particular, besides her general denial that there had been any improper infimery of another incident, the so-called bedroom scene. Mrs. Tilton said called befroom scene. Mrs. Tillon said she remembered nothing more than this: "She was sitting with her hustand and Mr. Beecher in the bedroom which is connected by folding-doors with the com-mon sitting-room, in the home of the Tillon's. Mr. Tillon went away for a short time and when he returned found Mrs. Tillon and Mr. Beecher in the same place where he had left them in this bedroom."

SUMMARY OF MRS. TILTON'S EXAMINA-

A summary of the long examination of Mrs. Tilton, on Friday evening, is sublished this morning, and claimed to have been obtained directly from the best sources of information. Mrs. Tilton testified that she told Mrs. Authory the story of all the accusations made by the bayeard of the story of all the accusations made by er husband, and especially in regard to er; that Mr. Tilton accused her of infistiry with several other gentlemen of Scooklyn besides Mr. Beecher. Mrs. Citon claimed that she assured Miss Anbony that there was not a bit of truth in the accusations; and she never gave the least reason to assert that she had confessed to any act of wrong-doing. Miss Authony, in turn, informed Mrs. Tilton of certain acts of infidelity on the part of Mr. Tilton. He seemed to have a sort of mania for dinning into her ears the belief that Mr. Beecher was guilty. He used, repeated-ly, to take down the bible and read to the pussage, "But I say unto you whoseever looketh on a woman to lust after her, hath committed adultery within his own heart," and would then say, "There, Elizabeth, don't you see Mr. Beecher is guilty of adultery." Mrs. Tilton being asked if she had the thought w size had allowed her love for Mr. Beecher to supplant her love for r husband, and expressed deep contri-

The third district courtroom, Brooklyn, was again crowded this morning by those anxious to observe the changing phases of the Beecher-Tilton scandal. When the ordinary routine business of the court had been disposed of, Justice Relly called the libel case of Gaynor errore Tilton, instituted last week, and rendered the following decision: "En-tertained the complaint in this case and believing it my duty to do so. I ned no day. Loss fifteen thousand dollars, knowledge of complainant nor his posiion in the matter. The defendant was arrested on that warrant, and appeared before me personally and by counsel, and complainent also appeared at the same time, when it was admitted by complainant, and thus made known to me for the first time, that the complaint was not made with the knowledge or libel is a public offense, it is also true that it is such an offense because of the were elected in nearly every town and en libelled. daily paper is the constant companion of a family. Three innocent children to one grown person read it, hence its pages should be entirely free from impurity. In regard to this scandal, most people are going to extremes. One says it will revolutionize society; another, that it will prove derogatory to religion, and cause people to lose faith in their ministers, and a lot more of such nonscense. Beecher, if he be guilty, is not the first preacher that has fallen in this manner, and yet inhisters are loved, adored, petted and trusted everywhere, and will be to the end of time, though a thousand Beechers fall, and society be noue the worse for it. No one but the families of Beecher and Mrs. Tilton will feel this shame a year hence. The bible feel this shame a year hence. The bible is not rejected because Daniel of old com-mitted this very same sin. He was and is forgiven, because he suffered for his crime and repented. The bible says if we commit this sin, even in thought, we are deflied. Who, in this vast community, can say, "I have lived pure from my youth up, and I will condemn those wretches, who deserve no mercy". If they are guilty, they certainly deserve to be condemned, but it would be charitable to wait until they are proven guilty beyond all doubt. guilty beyond all doubt.

EDITORS APPEAL-I am anxious to occupy a little space in your paper, and in advance I will say it will not be con-troversy. The mind of the people of the United States, if I can judge, is more intensely strained now than I have ever known it during the space of forty years, except, pethaps, the end of a Presidential canvass; and it is the more wonderful because there is only one man directly involved in a great scandal. Let me now step aside to state a fact. In 1832 or 1833, it matters not which, the Asiatic cholera made its first appearance in the United States. You are not old enough to remember the alarm it spread through the land, but you may be acthere was a pot of tar and a bag of feathers.
